Eva is 12 years old. She gets up at 6:00 a.m. and studies for an hour before breakfast. She goes to school at 8:30 and comes home after 6 p.m. She eats lunch at school and studies for an hour before her afternoon classes. After school on Monday, she has guitar lessons. After school on Tuesday and Thursday, she has Chinese class. After dinner, she plays the guitar and studies from 7:00 to 10:30 p.m. She usually goes to bed at 11:00 p.m.

What does Eva do on weekends? Does she have fun? She gets up at 8:00 or 8:30 a.m. But after breakfast, she plays the guitar from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Then she eats lunch and reads a book. She doesn't have time for fun on the weekends! She goes to bed early – she's always tired!

Eva's a very good student, but is she happy? Are children happy when they don't play? Doctors say they're not happy. Many children study in the evenings and on the weekends. This isn't good. Children want free time! Doctors have an important message for parents: "Make sure your children work AND play!"

5 Robots are not real friends. ☐
6 Children can do things with robots all day. ☐

2 Reading

A Read the article. Then choose the correct title. Circle 1, 2, or 3.

1 New Robots
2 Our Grandparents' Problems
3 Robots for Our Grandparents

Companies now have talking robots for grandparents. Sometimes our grandparents live alone. They do not talk to other people every day, and they don't see their friends often. New robots can help with this problem.

Linda Miller is an example. She is 75 years old. She doesn't live with her family. Her friends don't live close to her. But now, she has a talking robot. It can tell her about new books, interesting movies, or important news. Also, it can play music for Linda. Her robot knows her favorite songs and singers.

Linda Miller says, "My robot is not a friend, but I like it very much."

B Read the article again. Check (✓) the correct sentences.

1 Some grandparents do not live with other people. ✓
2 New robots can help grandparents. ____
3 Linda Miller's robot goes to the movies with her. ____
4 Linda's robot plays her favorite music. ____
5 Linda doesn't like her robot. ____

3 Writing

A Read three people's online comments about the podcast. Find the quotes from Emily and Joel. Change the punctuation for the quotes.

Claudia, Bogotá
I don't think Emily is right. She says our children are playing with their robots and not with other children. My two children often play with other children. They use robots for 30 minutes a day. I don't think that's a lot.

Helena, Belo Horizonte
I think robots are a good thing. Joel says children can play with robots and learn from them. I agree. Children can play with other children, but I don't think they learn from other children. They learn from their robots.

Moe, Toronto
I think Emily is right. Robots are sometimes a problem for children. She says robots are now our children's friends. It's true for my six-year-old nephew. He always plays with his robot. He doesn't want to play with other children. It's a big problem for my sister and her husband.

B Change the sentences to quotes. Use says or said and the correct punctuation.

Informal writing:

1 Linda Miller: I like my talking robot. _____

2 Linda Miller's son: The robot helps my mother a lot.

_____

Formal writing:

3 Ronaldo Benson: Our company makes robots for grandparents.

_____

4 Doctor Diaz: Robots are good for grandparents because they don't usually see people every day.

_____

C Write an online comment. Give your opinion about robots for grandparents.

South American ranch vacations

Do you like animals and nature? Do you want to travel and meet people? Why not visit a gaucho ranch?

A gaucho ranch is a very big farm with horses and other animals. The workers there are called gauchos. They are really good with horses. People can visit gaucho ranches and learn about the farm and the animals.

Can you ride a horse well? The gauchos can take you on a tour of the ranch.

Do you want to learn to ride a horse? The gauchos can help you!

There are gaucho ranches in South America, for example, in Argentina, Bolivia, Chile, and Uruguay. You can visit for a week, or you can work on a gaucho ranch for a month. Some ranches even have one-day tours.

You don't have to ride a horse every day. You can also walk around the ranch and see all the interesting plants and animals.

Maybe you don't want to go to the country, but you're interested in ranches. Some towns near ranches have gaucho museums. One gaucho museum is only 90 minutes from Buenos Aires. You can go there and learn a lot about gaucho life. The museum is cheap, too!

So, go to a gaucho ranch and have a great vacation!

2 Reading

A Read the article about Midsummer Day in Sweden. Write T if the sentence is true or F if it is false.

Midsummer Day in Sweden

Midsummer Day is a very important day in Sweden. There is sun all day and night. The holiday is on a Saturday between June 20 to 26, but the activities always start on Friday, the day before. People wear different clothes for the holiday. For example, many women wear white and put flowers in their hair. Children and adults dance and play games. They eat different foods – and the first strawberries of summer. Midsummer is also a time of love. Girls and young women take home seven different flowers. When they go to sleep on Midsummer Night, they dream of their future husbands. Midsummer Day is really an important day.

11.4 Things we keep

1 Reading

A Skim Read the article. Find three reasons why people keep things.

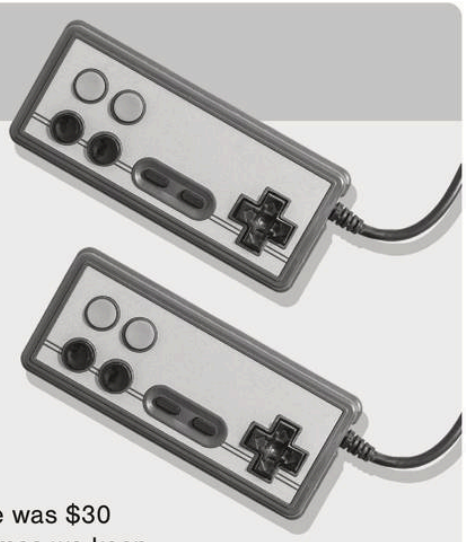
Why do we keep things?



Old toys. Old music. Old soccer balls. Why are they so important? Why do we keep them? Here are three reasons:

Our feelings

Maybe your favorite toy when you were a child was from your grandparents. You don't play with the toy now. You never see it. But you still want to keep it. Why? Because it's from your grandparents. You love them very much, so you keep the toy.

Money

Do you have old technology at home? Maybe that old video game was $30 in 1990. Maybe it is going to be $50 or $100 in 20 years. Sometimes we keep things because we can get money for them in the future.

The future

Why are you keeping your old soccer ball or your old guitar? You don't need them now. You don't play soccer or the guitar. But maybe your son or daughter is going to be a great soccer player or a wonderful guitar player. You're keeping them for your children.

B Read for detail Read words 1–5 below. Circle the words in the article. Then match the words with their meanings (a–g). You don't need to use all the meanings.

1	it (line 6)	g	a	children	f	things
2	them (line 7)	_____	b	grandparents	g	toy

A Read the hotel review. Write (+) next to the things the reviewer liked. Write (–) next to the things the reviewer didn't like. Write (x) next to the things the reviewer did not write about.

Katia Wong Rating ★★★★☆

We really liked the Ace Hotel. It's a large hotel with 75 rooms, and it's near the train station. The workers at the hotel were very friendly. Our room was quiet, and the bed was big. The hotel has a beautiful swimming pool. Our children loved it. There's a very nice restaurant for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. We didn't eat dinner at the restaurant, but we had breakfast there every morning. There were a lot of different things to eat and drink on the menu. The weather was beautiful, and sometimes we ate outside. The only problem was the shower. It was very small, and one time we didn't have hot water.

1 __+__ the people
2 _____ the price
3 _____ the room
4 _____ the TV
5 _____ the restaurant
6 _____ the shower
7 _____ the swimming pool
8 _____ internet in the room
