2 Reading

A Read the magazine article. Circle the correct options to complete the sentences.

Small actions, big changes

Claudia Jackson believes you can make a big difference in the world.

The scientist Jane Goodall once said, "You cannot get through a single day without having an impact on the world around you. What you do makes a difference, and you have to decide what kind of difference you want to make." Big or small, our actions either help or hurt the planet. Sometimes it's hard to see how we can really help the environment. What can one person do to make a big change? Some people don't take any sustainable actions because they are afraid they don't matter. According to Goodall, though, our actions do matter. To start, you can make a list of sustainable actions you can do this week, then do one of them today. You can bring a reusable water bottle to the gym instead of using a disposable bottle, or you can choose to bike to work instead of driving. If you set a good example for others, they may take sustainable actions, too. The important thing is to remember that your actions matter.

1 This article says that every person's actions are important / sustainable.
2 It is helpful / difficult to take small sustainable actions.
3 One sustainable action is to drive / bike to work.
4 Your actions can set a good example / good guidelines for others.

B Read the article again. Circle the correct answers.

1 What does Jane Goodall's quotation mean? It means that every day we all _____ a change the world. b work hard. c have to live in the world.

2 Why does Claudia Jackson think that some people don't take sustainable actions? Because they _____ a don't care about the planet. b don't think their actions matter. c are very tired.

3 What is Claudia's advice about helping the planet?
   a Go to the gym. b Read a book by Jane Goodall. c Do one sustainable action today.

3 Writing

A Complete the statements using the words in the box.

another	believe	don't	example	interesting	like

1 The idea that all people can help the planet is _____ , but I'm not sure it's true.
2 _____ example of a sustainable habit is buying used office furniture.
3 _____ a lot of people, I _____ small actions can make a big difference in the world.
4 I _____ believe that working at home is always sustainable. For _____ , people working at home need to buy their own office equipment instead of sharing.

B Write a blog entry about your daily habits and how you think they could be more sustainable. Include as many examples as possible.

1 What is the name of Adrian's group?

2 Where is his group from?

3 How many people ride bicycles in Mexico City on the weekend?

4 When are the night tours?

5 How many people usually take the tours?

2 Reading

A Read the online article and (circle) the correct answers.

Cities for people or cars?

Too many cars can be bad for a city. There is too much traffic and stress. And traffic can be a problem because stressed drivers sometimes break the rules to save time.

At the Bicitekas group, we think bicycles can help change people's habits. That is why we have bicycle tours around the city, and we plan art shows and parties. Mexico City needs better roads and more green areas.

There are many ways you can help. Come to our shows, tours, and parties. And, above all, use your bike. Do not drive your car on the weekend, and share rides with friends and family. You can help us make our city a better place for people and not just for cars.

1 What is the main idea?
   a Cars are good. b People can help. c The city needs more parks.

2 What does Bicitekas do?
   a sells bicycles b has bike tours c repairs old bicycles

3 What does the author say people can do to help?
   a share rides b drive on weekends c buy a newer car

My first time in Buenos Aires was amazing and strange at the same time. I'm from a small town in Oklahoma, so I like quiet and food – lots of food. And I had lots of great meals in Buenos Aires, especially the meat.

Everything was great for the first two days, but it changed on the third day. This happened when the town's soccer team, River Plate, won the Libertadores Cup.

That evening, soccer fans partied all night in the streets. There was loud music and dancing everywhere! I was not able to sleep! I don't understand why people do that when their team wins.

All this taught me a lesson. I love Buenos Aires – the people, the food – I even love Argentinian soccer! So, I want to go back, but not during any big soccer games. That I'm sure of.

5	Write down what you need and want.	e _____	Discuss the price.

2 Reading

A Read the blog post. Choose the correct answers below.

My trip to Rio is going to be amazing! I can't wait to go shopping there! Brazilians dress well, so I always check what's in their stores.

Gilson Martins is a chain of small designer stores. Sometimes international movie stars shop there! Now, be careful that you don't spend too much money. In Brazil, there is a popular phrase that means the only easy thing about money is losing it. Prices in this store are high, and you can spend lots of money in just one visit.

Perhaps my favorite shopping trip was on my last visit there. I went to the street markets in Ipanema. I found nice leather bags and beautiful pictures. I was careful with what I bought because Brazilians also say: "Cheap things can be very expensive." Sometimes they break quickly, and you have to buy them again!

I am going to have so much fun shopping! But I also plan not to spend a lot because ... "Money doesn't grow on trees!"

1 What kind of blog is this?
a a travel blog b a work blog c a business blog

2 What does the writer enjoy in Rio?
a movie stars b fashion c shopping

3 Why does the writer say that cheap things from street markets can be expensive?
a Because they aren't always very good. b Because you can buy them only in Brazil.
c Because you can't return them.

4 Why does the writer say that money doesn't grow on trees?
a Money is hard to get, so don't waste it. b Money is hard to find in Brazil.
c Shopping is difficult work.

3 Writing

A Rewrite the sentences using one / ones and it.

1 Movie stars are the famous people that shop there.

2 Ipanema's street market is great. I can't wait to visit my favorite market again.

3 There are many stores in Rio. Gilson Martins is a famous store.

4 Of all the countries, Brazil is the country I'm in love with.

5 Brazilians are the people that dress well.

B Brazilians have a saying that means: "The more you have, the more you want." Write a vlog script explaining the meaning of this saying in English. When would you use this saying? Use ones and it.

How can we eat to save the planet? Burgers that taste like meat but have no meat in them are an amazing idea. Of course, they're also good for the health of both people and the planet. But most of us don't change our eating habits for food that tastes the same. It has to taste better! For example, some people in New York love the Best Burger, made by Dave Simmons, a popular chef. His grilled burger is made of cereal and mushrooms. It doesn't taste like meat, but it is really delicious. What do you think? Is the future of food all about the planet, or is it about what the customer wants?

1 The writer thinks that burgers with no meat are _____ a the future of food. b a bad habit. c a great idea.

2 The writer thinks that burgers without meat need to _____ a be more popular than meat. b taste better than meat. c taste like meat.

3 The Best Burger is _____ a raw. b grilled. c fresh.

4 What is the Best Burger mostly made of?
a salmon b meat c mushrooms

3 Writing

Yourvideo Profile Channels Sign out

Hi! I'm Ana. Thanks for watching my Yourvideo channel. Many of you asked me to make a video about things that we international students at American colleges need to know. Well, here's my answer.

Here are five students from other countries giving advice on things every foreign student should know about living in the US for the first time.

Keila: If your flight is more than ten hours, you may feel tired the first week of class. So bring lots of water and coffee to school.

João: Make friends before vacation starts. Everybody goes home, and you don't want to be alone at school watching everyone's social media sites. Believe me.

Farid: Don't be surprised by how much food they give you here. Remember, it's a lot, but the food is delicious, too!

Antonio: It's OK if you don't know much about popular movies or art. You can always laugh a little and look it up later on the internet.

Kim: It's OK if you don't talk to your parents every day, because when they are up during the day and free to call you, you're not!

Let me just say, don't worry too much and have fun! Let me know what you think. And if you like the video – sign up!

1 Who made this video?
a a teacher b a student c a parent

2 After a long trip, it's normal to feel _____ the first days of school.
a tired b surprised c worried

3 Why should people make friends before vacation?
a So they can ask for help. b So they are not alone during vacation.
c So they can study together.

4 For some students, it's normal not to talk to their parents every day because of _____ .
a food differences b time differences c language differences

5 What advice does Ana give at the end of her video?
a don't be alone b study hard c don't worry

3 Writing

A Read the comments by the international students again. Write responses to them. Use the phrases in the box.

1 Reading

A Read the letter and answer the questions.

Dear Jacob,

I'm the teaching program manager, and we are excited to have you join us. Tomorrow you'll fly to South Korea! For two years, you will stay in a village near Busan. You'll teach children English there. This work is very important, so be proud of yourself. Very few people spend two years of their lives after college working in a different country.

You will be away from home for a long time, so you might want to bring some music and books. And you're going to miss your family, so bring photos. It's important to remember them. Also, don't forget your medicine, you will need it.

I'll meet you at the airport in Busan in a few days. Please email me any time you have questions.

Good luck!

2 Reading

A Read the blog below and write T (True) or F (False).

I've never been good with plants, but I moved to a new apartment that's not very big, and decided I needed a wall garden. Why? Well, plants are beautiful to look at and they help clean the air. A wall garden is a way that a lot of plants can grow without taking too much floor space.

It's not very easy to grow a wall garden. You have to make sure it's not too heavy, and that it gets enough light. Also, you have to make sure you don't give it too much water. Then the plants get yellow and their leaves fall off.

The most important thing for a beautiful wall garden is plant food. Put some in the water every month, and you will have awesome green plants. It's the best thing I've ever done!

1 Large plants will fit in the writer's apartment. _____

2 The writer has always been good with plants. _____

3 Wall gardens need good planning. _____

4 The most important thing is to water the plants very often. _____

5 The writer is happy with the garden. _____
